I. Program Overview

1. Program Description

The Division of Tourism operates within the Department of Tourism and Cultural Affairs to help achieve the Governor's strategic priority of a vibrant and sustainable economy by effectively promote statewide tourism to enhance the economic vitality of Nevada.

In addition to managing state tourism efforts, the Division provides communities and businesses with development resources, training, and grant assistance that help bolster local economic bases and diversify regional economies while strengthening communities' sense of place, supporting arts and culture, developing outdoor recreation opportunities, and celebrating history and local traditions.

The Nevada State Legislature has appropriated funds for the Nevada Department of Tourism to make available as matching grants for the fiscal year to support marketing efforts that develop, promote, and improve tourism to and within the state of Nevada.

2. Key Objectives

The Travel Nevada Rural Marketing Grant Program's key objectives include:

- Enhancing tourism in rural Nevada communities through evidence-based marketing strategies.
- Collecting data on the reach and impact of tourism programs in rural communities across the State.
- Enabling rural communities to share their authentic stories with visitors through the support of Travel Nevada.

3. Funding and Award Period

Through the Rural Marketing Grants program, the Division of Tourism will make available $1.5 million in funding in FY2026. The project period for this funding is July 1, 2025-June 30, 2026. All awards must be expended by the close of the project period.

Anticipated award announcement date: June 4, 2025.

Please note:

- Grant awards are subject to the availability of funding and/or appropriations of funds.
- Division of Tourism reserves the right to use this solicitation and competition to award additional grants this fiscal year, should additional funds become available.

4. Allowable Costs

The following are allowable costs for the purpose of the grant funds:

- a. Administration of Territories. The marketing territories set up by the Division of Tourism may apply for up to $5,000 under regular application procedures. - k. Indirect or expenses not directly in support of the proposed project
- l. Sponsorships, Events, parties, alcohol

6. Matching Requirements

Match is the share of the proposed project cost for which the grantee is responsible. Grantees or their partners may make the required match as either cash or in-kind contributions.

- a. Match Percentage. Excepting Territories or those grantees for whom a match waiver is requested and subsequently granted by Travel Nevada staff, the matching share must amount to at least 50% of the total project budget.
- b. Failure to Match. Travel Nevada Rural Marketing Grant funds may account for no more than 50% of the total project budget. Grantees who are unable make their match requirement will have their award reduced to an amount equal to the match accrued. (excepting grantees who have been granted Match Waivers, as per I.6.e or Territories, as per I.6.f)
 - i. Note: For grantees who have received a disbursement of funds prior to making their full required match (e.g. A reimbursement request was made, and funds were disbursed in anticipation of match outlined in the Budget Narrative, but the match was not subsequently met), the full required match amount must be met prior to the submission of the final request for reimbursement or a.) The Division of Tourism will reduce the amount of the final reimbursement proportionate to the amount of match owed or b.) If the amount of the final reimbursement request is LESS THAN the amount of outstanding match, the grantee must remit payment to The Division of Tourism for the amount disbursed in excess of the required match, taking into account any sliding scale match waiver. Failure to do so will place the grantee in a non-compliance status and render them ineligible for future funding opportunities.
- c. In-kind contributions may include volunteer hours, donations of services, meeting space, or other resources to be used specifically for the proposed project. The value of anticipated in-kind contributions should be noted in the application.
- d. For budgeting purposes, the rate for In-kind volunteer hours is $33.49 in accordance with the Nevada state rate for 2024 in the Value of Volunteer Time Report available at independentsector.org. Organizational staff may not submit volunteer hours with their employer.
- e. Entities for whom the match requirement presents a substantial financial hardship are encouraged to apply and may submit a Match Waiver application. The request for a match waiver will not affect the applicant's chances of being selected. Match Waivers must be requested at the time of application and will be granted based on a sliding-scale formula developed by Travel Nevada.
- f. The following Territory Organizations are exempt from the match requirement:
 - i. Cowboy Country
 - ii. Las Vegas Territory
 - iii. Nevada's Indian Territory
 - iv. Nevada Silver Trails
 - v. Pony Express territory
 - vi. Reno-Tahoe Territory

- g. In instances where match will be made by contributions from project partners, commitments of cash or in-kind contributions should be demonstrated through Letters of Commitment and included in the application package where possible.

To be eligible as match, the contribution must be:

- ✓ Directly in support of the project.
- ✓ Accrued during the project period.
- ✓ Documented and verifiable in your records.
- ✓ Necessary and reasonable for carrying out the proposed project.
- ✓ Exclusive to the project, and not used as match for any other grant.

III. Application and Submission Information

1. Before you Begin

The following information will be necessary to complete your application:

- The applicant organization's Nevada Secretary of State Corporate ID Number. If they have not already done so, Applicants should register for a Secretary of State Corporate ID number by visiting <https://www.nvsos.gov/sos>
- The applicant organization's IRS-issued Federal Tax ID number. This number is assigned to non-profit entities and can be found by visiting <https://www.irs.gov/charities-non-profits/tax-exempt-organization-search>. If your organization is not already incorporated as a non-profit, visit <https://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/p4220.pdf> to learn about how to become a non-profit organization. Local government and Territory entities may disregard this.

2. Content and Format of Application Submission

Only ONE application will be accepted per organization (excepting Territories as designated by the Division of Tourism, which may submit ONE Administrative Application for UP TO $5,000 as well as a separate Project Application). Applicants are encouraged to look holistically at their plans for the year and budget accordingly. Applicants may apply for project funding for one or multiple eligible project types (II.2.i-ix). Partial funding may be awarded.

Applications for FY26 Travel Nevada Rural Marketing Grant funding will be accepted exclusively through the Submittable Platform. Applicants will need to create an account on Submittable by clicking the link at travelnevada.biz/programs/grants. After registering, a confirmation email including instructions and next steps will be sent to the address used to create the account. Submittable will generate an organizational log-in which will be used to access your application. Applicants are encouraged to view the Applicant Webinar at travelnevada.biz/programs/grants for a demonstration of the platform.

3. Submission Date

Applications for funding must be received through the Travel Nevada Rural Marketing Grant Submittable platform no later than midnight on April 30, 2025 to be considered for funding. Applications or supplemental materials received after this date will not be included in the review and selection process. Allow plenty of time to complete the application.

4. How to Submit an Application

Once you have created a Submittable account, you will be able to access the application. You will be able to save your work and return to your application to continue editing it until you click Submit, at which time your application will no longer be available for editing. Please be sure to answer every question on the application completely and to the best of your ability. It is recommended to draft your application in Microsoft Word or similar and then paste into the appropriate fields in Submittable.

Your application on Submittable must be complete to be considered. Failure to complete the application in its entirety will jeopardize your organization's eligibility to receive funding.

The application sections are as follows:

Organizational Summary – Complete the required fields regarding your organization.

Project Summary – (75 words) The Project Summary should clearly explain the proposed project, how it will enhance tourism in Nevada, and the expected results. If awarded, this project description will appear on the Travel Nevada industry website.

Copy and paste the Project Summary into the Project Narrative field in Submittable.

Project Narrative – (Up to 500 words) The Project Narrative should provide grant reviewers with a clear picture of what you are proposing to do. In this section, include information on each aspect of your proposal, explaining the project goals and intended outcomes, activities, and expected impact on your community or organization. List any partners that will be involved in the project. If you wish, you may attach up to two clearly labeled additional pages of background information as Supplemental Materials.

Copy and paste the Project Narrative into the Project Narrative field in Submittable.

Evaluation Plan – (Up to 400 words) Identify how reach and economic impact will be measured for the proposed project. What measures will be used to define success for the project? How will data be collected and reported? What types of evaluation tools will be included in the project? Note: If the applicant plans to utilize a survey instrument in their evaluation, it must be submitted to the Division of Tourism for review two weeks prior to the planned date of deployment.

Copy and paste the Evaluation Plan into the Evaluation Plan field in Submittable.

The Division of Tourism reserves the right to work with grantees to modify Evaluation Plans to align with agency data collection needs and standards.

Project Sustainability Plan – (Up to 400 words) Describe the strategies that will be used to ensure the proposed project is able to continue beyond the grant period. Explain your approach to building partnerships, securing other funding, and maintaining stakeholder support outside of Travel Nevada's rural marketing grants.

Copy and paste the Project Sustainability Plan into the Project Sustainability Plan field in Submittable.

Project Timeline – Complete the Project Timeline template. Be sure to include each of the key steps for your project and the anticipated project completion date. If the proposed project includes design of collateral, materials, or an evaluation instrument, be sure to build in required time for Travel Nevada review.

Upload your project timeline using the Project Timeline upload form in Submittable.

Budget Narrative – Complete the Budget Narrative template. Include all anticipated project costs. The Budget Narrative must also document anticipated sources of match that will be used to meet the required match for the project.

Upload the Budget Narrative Template and all required Supplemental Budget Information (e.g. cost estimates for services) using the Supplemental Materials form in Submittable.

Project Categories – To ensure the best alignment between your project, we have categorized the project information into various branches. Please review the following categories and select the one or ones that best define your grant request.

To ensure fairness and transparency in the review process, each category selected will be scored individually based on the project information provided.

- a. Paid Advertising Branch: This category focuses on activities related to paid advertising, such as ad placements in various mediums like broadcast (ads on TV, radio), print (newspapers, magazines, or other print publications to target specific readership demographics), online (digital platforms, search engines marketing, display advertising, social media) and out-of-home advertising (billboards, posters, digital screens in public spaces). It also includes electronic direct mail campaigns (targeted promotional emails).
 - i. We will assess your goals, objectives, tactics and target audience. It is important to provide clear and measurable goals, outcome metrics, and a well-defined call to action.
- b. PR Branch: This category involves targeted PR campaigns that may include paid influences, media missions, PR FAM tours, social media engagement, and copywriting. It focuses on promoting tourism to industry professionals and building relationships with travel trade partners.
 - i. To evaluate your PR strategy, we will consider your goals objectives, and target audience. We will also want to know how you plan to monitor and analyze the effectiveness of your campaigns in generating positive publicity for Rural Nevada destinations. A template for Media Missions and PR FAM Tours is provided in the application to gather more detailed information about your plans.
- c. Travel Trade Branch: This category encompasses business activities and relationships withing the travel industry that involve the buying, selling, and promotion of the travel – related products and services. It encompasses various entities aimed at the travel trade industry, such as sales missions, trade shows, events, and trade FAM tours.
 - i. When evaluating your goals and objectives for the Travel Trade Branch, we will inquire about your data collection and tracking plans during sales missions or trade shows. We want to know your approach for following up with contacts made during these events. In addition, we have provided an excel template with additional questions related to missions, events or trade shows.

- d. Organization Assests Branch: This category includes the development and utilization of organization assets such as images, videos, and other visual content. It also involves optimizing content for search engines (SEO) and creating promotional materials like brochures, rack cards, and maps.
 - i. To evaluate your application in this category, we will assess your goals, objectives, target audience, and the distribution plan for these assets. We are also interested in understanding how the proposed assets align with your organization's brand identity and Travel Nevada's brand pillars.
- e. Conference Branch: This category covers tourism-related workshops and seminars that have an educational nature. It includes organizing conferences to provide knowledge and networking opportunities for the tourism industry.
 - i. To evaluate your application in this category, we will consider your need, goals and objectives for attending conferences as part of your grant application. We have provided an Excel template for you to input multiple conferences to provide more detailed information.
- f. Co-op Branch: This category refers to cooperative opportunities where organizations collaborate to pool resources and jointly promote tourism. It involves partnerships and shared marketing initiatives.
 - i. We will evaluate your goals and objectives for each Co-op. You will need to include all the Co-op opportunities you would like to participate in.
- g. Market Research/Strategic Planning Branch: This category focuses on conducting market research and strategic planning activities to gain insights into target markets, tourism trends, and develop effective strategies for the project.
 - i. To evaluate your application in this category, we will review your goals and objectives for Market Research/Strategic Planning. If you have any supporting documentation or artifacts that would assist the grant review team, please upload them using the "File upload" feature.
- h. Other Branch: This category allows for any project that does not fit into the above categories to be described and considered for the grant. If you have a unique project idea that does not align with the other categories, please provide a detailed description and explain how it contributes to the promotion of tourism in Rural Nevada.

5. Submission Checklist

Prior to submitting your application, please review the following checklist to ensure that you have included all the required documentation with your application.

- ☐ Have your Federal Tax ID number and/or Nevada Secretary of State Corporate ID Number
- ☐ Complete the Waiver Match application (If applicable.)

- ☐ Ensure all quotes match your request
- ☐ Have all supporting documentation ready
- ☐ Partner letters of Support
- ☐ Complete Rural Marketing Grants Application on Submittable (See 3.4 above, Required)

6. Application Review Information

Applications will be reviewed by a panel using the criteria outlined below in (III.7). Upon review, the selection committee will submit for approval a recommended list of grant awardees for approval by the Nevada Commission on Tourism. The decision of the Nevada Commission on Tourism regarding awardees is final.

7. Project Selection Criteria

The Division of Tourism is interested in promoting marketing best practices, projects that offer a demonstrable return on investment, program sustainability, evidence-driven programming, and collaborative marketing efforts. Funding for the Rural Marketing Grants Program must be renewed annually, and projects which contribute evidence and data in support of a robust tourism marketing program are preferred. Please reference the Rubric for Scoring, available on travelnevada.biz/programs/grants, for scoring criteria for each project type. Additionally, priority in scoring will be given to projects which demonstrate:

- a. Clear and measurable project goal.
- b. Support for inclusivity by actively promoting diversity, equity, and inclusion within the project, ensuring equal opportunities for all individuals or communities involved.
- c. Public-private partnerships that integrate local agencies and small business or other for-profit entities working cooperatively to support the local tourism economy.
- d. Utilization of best practices
- e. An evaluation plan to collect, analyze, and report metrics that measure project impact
- f. An ability of the project to become sustainable without ongoing support from the Division of Tourism.
- g. Incorporation of the Travel Nevada Brand Pillars (Arts and Culture, Museums and History, Outdoor Recreation, Tribal Nations, or a Signature Event)
- h. Potential to generate new economic impact for the destination
- i. Availability of other funding support for the project (room tax, local funding, sponsorships, ad sales)
- j. Novel approaches or optimization of existing approaches to maximize benefit or return on investment

IV. Reporting Requirements

In order to remain in compliance with the requirements to receive this funding, grantees are asked to provide reports on project status to the Division of Tourism. Prior to applying for funding, please review these requirements to ensure that your organization is capable and willing to complete and submit the necessary reports as outlined below.

1. Financial Reporting and Reimbursement Procedures

- a. Reimbursement Procedures –
 - i. The applicant's organization must be registered as a vendor with the State of Nevada to receive reimbursement. To register please contact vendordesk@controller.state.nv.us
 - ii. In order to receive reimbursement, grantees must submit a Reimbursement Request Form, available on travelnevada.biz/programs/grants.
 - iii. The Rural Marketing Grant Financial Summary Worksheet will need to be filled out. This worksheet includes an outlay report detailing each expense for which reimbursement is being requested, as well as receipts/invoices as documentation of expenses incurred included with your Reimbursement Request, available on travelnevada.biz/programs/grants.
 - iv. Any match that has accrued, along with proof of match, should be submitted with the Reimbursement Request.
 - v. Reimbursement requests for mileage and per diem expenses should be accompanied by the appropriate forms, available on Travelnevada.biz/programs/grants.
 - vi. The Final Reimbursement Request will need to be completed through Submittable, under the Final Evaluation Form.
 - vii. The Final Reimbursement Request, along with all documentation listed above, must be scanned and uploaded to Submittable through the Final Evaluation form.
 - viii. Grantees must submit two copies with wet signature of the Reimbursement Form to Division of Tourism. These copies will also need to be uploaded through Submittable under the Final Evaluation Form.
- b. Only expenses which are directly related to the project, and which are accompanied by supporting backup are eligible for reimbursement.
- c. Partial Reimbursement requests may be made monthly and completed via submittable along with including the Rural Marketing Grant Financial Summary Worksheet with 5 or more invoices, but a request need not be submitted if no expenses were incurred.
- d. Final Reimbursement Requests must be submitted through Submittable and a wet signature to be received by the Division of Tourism within 30 days of the completion of the project, no later than June 30, 2026.

- e. Match – Match must be documented on each outlay report, but the entire match amount does not need to be met until the final reimbursement. If no match was accrued during the period being requested for reimbursement, simply report as “0”. For complete matching requirements, see I.6.a-g.
- f. Overspending – Grantees are solely responsible for any and all expenses that exceed the original grant amount.
- g. Returning Funds – If a grantee for any reason cannot expend any portion their award, they should email ruralgrants@travelnevada.com as soon as possible so that the funding can be re-allocated. Do not notify the Rural Grant Administrator two weeks before closing date. Failure to notify the Division of Tourism of unspent funds may result in denial of future funding.
- h. Grants may be audited at any time by the Division of Tourism or its representatives. Performance on past projects will be considered by the organization in advisement to any additional funding awards.
- i. In order to receive reimbursements, the grantee must be in compliance with project reporting requirements, see IV.2. and IV.3.
- j. Travel Nevada reserves the right to conduct audits at any point and time to ensure compliance with reporting procedures and to verify that appropriate account management practices are being upheld.

2. Performance Evaluation – Mid-Year Check-in Reports and Final Project Reports

- a. Mid-Year Check in Report. Grantees must submit a Mid-Year check in Report to the Division of Tourism. A link to the reporting form will be sent to the email address on the organization’s Submittable account. The due date for the report will be 30 days from the date it is sent by the Division of Tourism. In the Mid-Year check in Report, grantees should include updates on milestones included in the Project Timeline as well as progress on measures and KPI’s outlined in their Evaluation Plan and any barriers encountered during the project. Grantees are also encouraged to submit additional information or attachments such as earned media and feedback from visitors. Once completed our Rural Marketing Grants Administration will set up a meeting with the grantee and review the report for further discussion.
- b. Final Evaluation Reports. At the close of the project, grantees will be required to submit a Final Report/Project Evaluation. The final reimbursement will not be processed until this report is received by the Division of Tourism. The Final Report/Project Evaluation should include a summary of the completed project activities and the impact and success of the project based on the metrics established in the Evaluation Plan. Additionally, grantees will be asked to reflect on lessons learned and future plans, if any, for the project. Grantees should complete the Final Report/Project Evaluation template on Submittable.

3. Materials and Assets

- a. Prior to publication, Materials and Assets in DRAFT form must be submitted to the Division of Tourism for review. The Division of Tourism requires 10 working days to review a submission and make requests for edits or alterations, so allow for this as you are planning. Send draft materials, along with a Materials Review Request, to ruralgrants@travelnevada.com.

- b. For Photography and video funded projects the Nevada Division of Tourism retains the right for unlimited usage with no expiration date. It is the responsibility of the grantee to inform contracted artists of Travel Nevada's rights to use any materials produced with this funding. A Media Licensing Agreement will need to be signed with Nevada Division of Tourism. Furthermore, it is the responsibility of the grantee to provide photography and video files to the Nevada Division of Tourism.
- c. Projects funded for print require the grantee to follow the Division of Tourism Content Policy and Brand Guidelines. For any print material you may no longer need to include the Travel Nevada Image. Rather than state "Sponsored by Travel Nevada Rural Marketing Grant."
- d. Projects funded for websites and online advertising require the recipient to include a reciprocal link to TravelNevada.com.
- e. Final versions of Materials and Assets should be provided to the Division of Tourism accompanied in the Final Evaluation Form on Submittable to be kept on file. For grant-funded projects that produce digital assets (photography and video), the Nevada Division of Tourism requests the final deliverables be sent in the highest resolutions possible. For photography, please send the highest resolution images available in JPEG format. For video, please send the highest resolution files in .MOV format.
- f. Compliance with section IV.3 is a requirement to receive reimbursement.

VI. Project Amendments

If a grantee wishes to amend their original project, they may request to do so by contacting ruralgrants@travelnevada.com. Project amendments must include rationale for the change and will be granted at the discretion of Division of Tourism staff. Project amendments may not exceed the original award amount. Project amendments may not change the overall scope/purpose of the project. In order to receive reimbursement for expenses that are included in a project amendment, expenses must not be incurred prior to approval of the amendment.

VII. Noncompliance

All recipients of this funding are expected to comply with all of the policies and requirements laid out in this document as well as any Travel Nevada policies or requirements further clarified in Q&As, memoranda, or other relevant documents. The Travel Nevada staff are available to guide grantees to avoid instances of noncompliance. Awardees will be notified in writing of instances of noncompliance and will face serious repercussions for repeated instances of noncompliance, including forfeiture of grant funds and ineligibility for future funding opportunities through the Nevada Division of Tourism.
